[Monday:]

[Iona Abbey Worship Book]

- l. God,
in whose heart is love and justice,
show us this day whom we must love and what we should challenge or change in order that your will for the earth might be done.
increase our hope,
dispel our apathy,
inspire our imagination,
and deepen our commitment
until we become the signs of your Kingdom for which we and others pray.
a. AMEN.

[Tuesday:]

[The Glory in the Grey, adapted]

- l. O God of Life,
Sun behind all suns,
Soul behind all souls,
everlasting Healer of our whole being,
show to us in everything we touch and in everyone we meet
the continued assurance of your presence round us, lest ever we should think you absent.
In all created things you are there.

In every friend we have the sunshine of your presence is shown forth.
In every enemy that seems to cross our path,
you are there within the cloud
to challenge us to love.
Show to us the glory in the grey;
awake for us your presence in the very storm till all our joys are seen as you and all our trivial tasks emerge as sacraments in the universal temple of your love.

a. AMEN.

[Wednesday:]

[Iona Abbey Worship Book, adapted]

l. O God,
who gave to your servant Columba
the gifts of courage, faith and cheerfulness, and sent people forth from Iona
to carry your Word to every creature;
grant, we pray, a like spirit to your church,
even at this present time.
Further in all things the purpose of our communities,
that hidden things may be revealed to all,
and new ways found to touch the hearts of many.
May we preserve with each other sincere charity and peace, and grant that places of your abiding be continued still to be a sanctuary and a light.
Through Jesus Christ.

a. AMEN.

[Thursday:]

[Iona Abbey Worship Book, adapted]

l. O God,
you have set before us a great hope that your kingship will come on earth,
and have taught us to pray for its coming:
make us ready to thank you for the signs of its dawning,
and to work and pray for the perfect day when your will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Through Jesus Christ.

a. AMEN.

[Friday:]

[Iona Abbey Worship Book, adapted]

l. O God,
through Christ you are within each of us,
and not in a house of wood and stone:
it is our own inner being you have renewed.
We are your temple not made with hands,
we are your body.
If every wall should crumble and every church decay,
we are your habitation.
Nearer are you than breathing,
closer than hands and feet.

Ours are the eyes with which you, in the mystery,
look out with compassion on the world.
Yet we bless you for this place,
for your directing of us, your redeeming of us,
and your indwelling.
Take us outside, o God, outside the sanctuary,
out to where soldiers curse and nations clash
at the crossroads of the world.
So shall our buildings continue to be justified.
We ask it for your own Name's sake.

a. AMEN.

[Saturday:]

[Iona Abbey Worship Book, adapted]

l. O God,
you set your blessing on us
as we begin this day together.
Confirm us in the truth by which we rightly live;
confront us with the truth from which we wrongly turn.
We ask not for what we want,
but for what you know we need,
as we offer this day and ourselves for you and to you.
Through Jesus Christ, our Teacher.

a. AMEN.

Closing responses

l. In work and worship
a. GOD IS WITH US.

l. Gathered and scattered
a. GOD IS WITH US.

l. Now and always
a. GOD IS WITH US.
AMEN.
